Voting Record of House Members on the Fellow Servant Question.

THE LOBBY'S BATTALION.

Copy of the Official Record of Yes and Nay Votes on a Test.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 8.—Ever since the special session convened the Filley cuckoos and combine tools in the House have lost no opportunity to refer to the fact that they passed a fellow servant bill at the regular session. The records show that the House, when it had the best opportunity to secure fellow servant legislation that occurred during the session, hit it with a side kick. The vote on that occasion and the vote on Mr. Davidson's resolution to report a fellow servant bill yesterday affords an opportunity for the public to officially discover thirty-seven members who have been consistently with the combination. There are others, but these are on record.

As a matter of fact the big end of the Filley House never was and is not now in favor of a fellow servant bill. Most of them have been dodging behind the scenes, voting for the bill which finally passed, too late to be acted upon by the Senate. It is a part of the history of the regular session that the House did not act upon it until Pincus gave the word to Russell, and guaranteed that it would be held up in the Senate. This programme was carried out.

The real test vote on fellow servant legislation in the House occurred on March 20. Every member of the House knew that the only chance to pass a bill was that the House bill would pass the Senate. So on March 20, Representative Julian, was for the bill to act upon it. The lobby was moved that it be taken up. The lobby was not expecting the move, and some of its heelers were absent. Speaker Russell sprang up and declared Julian was to introduce his motion to writing, and resorted to other parliamentary methods of delay.

Finally Porterfield of Greene, rushed over to Mr. Julian and whispered consultation with him. Then Bittner moved to lay Mr. Julian's motion on the table. Julian insisted that his motion was made for the purpose of giving the House an opportunity to amend the Senate bill by substituting the House bill for it, and then doing it back to the Senate. So on March 20, Representative Julian, was for the bill to pass.

THE TREASURY IN CHIEF'S HANDS.
Bond Syndicate Cornering Gold for Another Bond Deal.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 8.—The Post prints a special from Washington, calling attention to the efforts of the bond syndicate to corner the gold market. It says that brokers representing the Rothschild-Morgan syndicate have been paying a premium for the refined gold output of the private refineries throughout the West during the past two months, and that they are accumulating fine gold at the rate of $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 per month, and are preparing to buy two-thirds of the entire gold output of the United States.

The attention of officials of the Treasury Department was first attracted to peculiar business by the sharp falling off in the deposits of gold at the mint, and inquiry was made to find out what the syndicate was buying the produce of the refineries.

Further inquiry revealed that the metal was purchased and was drifting to New York, where it is being put into the credit of the Morgan-Rothschild syndicate. In order to divert the stream from its usual channels leading into the United States mint, the syndicate purchased gold in sight that they have marked up their quotations during the last few days.

At the present time they are getting practically all the gold produced in the country, excepting for the extreme Western coast. Many long-headed men in Washington and Wall street, who are familiar with the methods of the mint, come to the conclusion that the foundation is being laid for another bond deal before Congress meets again.

The last bond issue of $25,000,000 has been pretty well closed out, over $51,000,000 in gold having been paid out of the $25,500,000, and it is expected that the remaining $500,000 will be cleaned up before the first day of August. Under the terms of contract with the Treasury Department, the Morgan-Rothschild syndicate has the option on any bond that may be issued by the Government prior to October 1 next.

The Treasury is about to let their hands until the date of maturity, or through chicanery and manipulation the administration is obliged to issue another bond to maintain the gold reserve, the amount to be determined by the syndicate.

The contract is to be made by the President, and the syndicate agrees to maintain the Treasury reserve as the syndicate is to be the principal or to what method it shall adopt. If, in the carrying out of that moral obligation the syndicate shall decide that the Government should issue a bond of $100,000,000 in bonds the administration will have nothing to do but comply with the terms.

The President does not want to issue any bonds at the direction of the syndicate, the reserve can practically be wiped out and the country will be in a state of self-protection to put out more bonds he must sell them to the Morgan-Rothschild people and nobody else.

President Cleveland wears no better-fitting suits than are made by Hesse, Tailor, 617 Pine street.

Mr. Stieff has had a contract with the architect to make the calculations for the completion of his present deal with the Government. It deposited over $1,000,000 today, which will bring the reserve up to very nearly $30,000,000, and will be paid in full by the 1st of August, but the operation may be closed up within a few weeks. That will leave the syndicate a free field.

OUR DRINKING WATER.*It is Filled With Impurities in Every Part of the Land.

New York city on a recent day consumed 75,000,000 gallons of water. At least 1,000,000 gallons of impurities were contained in this quantity. It is, therefore, not surprising that the question of purity of drinking water has invaded the business office. Rich men who are vexed by slight physical ailments, or who are the victims of nervous troubles, are not slow to discover that there is danger in the water cooler. Many of them have their water boiled and chilled by refrigeration before they will drink it. Others have in their private offices jars of mineral water. Many bank and railroad presidents are particular about having the water they drink polished and pure. People who would avoid the dangers which arise from water impurities in all this should make a practice of taking a little pure whiskey each day. Even should worms have invaded the system this will effectively destroy them. It will keep the blood free from taint, and in healthy motion.

Great care should be taken, however, to have only pure whiskey, and it should be remembered that there is but one acknowledged pure medicinal whiskey, and that is Duffy's Pure Malt. It is not like other whiskies. It is palatable, strengthening, nourishing, and does just what is claimed for it. Do not permit any one to convince you otherwise.

Moses Fraley's Mansion.

The sale Tuesday, to the highest bidder of the late magnificent Fraley residence, No. 2000 Lincoln avenue, attracted a great deal of attention in ready circles. Messrs. Heiman & Farrington, real estate agents, handled the sale. The Morgan-Rothschild syndicate secured the dwelling at the low figure of $46,100. The house was built ten years ago at a cost of $100,000.

Many prominent business men attended the sale, among whom were Moses Rumsey, Charles P. Wenderly, E. W. Humphrey, James H. H. Clegg, M. C. Clegg, S. Warner, William Holmes, D. H. Harris, M. B. Sudder, J. C. Carson, D. P. Shattley, James Axtell, John Maguire, H. L. Hayday, W. H. Louderman, M. Bauman, D. Harburger and H. L. Niedringhaus. Mr. Fraley was also present. Dave Houser, of Fourways, was the highest bidder, the bidding at $30,000. Subsequent bids came in rather slowly when it was finally disposed of.

The workmanship throughout the mansion is of the best. All of the fine wood trimming and all-carved, was done by R. D. B. of the stonemasons of the stonemasons of the firm of Hunter & Evans. He occupied it about one year and then sold it to Mr. Fraley.

President Cleveland wears no better-fitting suits than are made by Hesse, Tailor, 617 Pine street.

NEW YORK. May 8.—Isidore Steckert, aged 21, and his pretty girl wife, who was Josephine Pfaff, are out on parole pending trial, on a charge of abduction against Isidore, and of complicity on the part of Josephine. They had run away, and their parents had frowned and then eloped to New Jersey and married last Sunday. Monday they returned home to be arrested. But the police said what hap- pened was that Josephine was only 15 and her mother swore out a warrant for the new husband and the pair were locked up, but afterwards released. The girl is worth $10,000 in her own right.

The full aroma is preserved by packing H. and J. Java and Mocha in air-tight cans.

Huntington Is Safe.

CHICAGO. May 8.—R. Morrison, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, asked his opinion of the decision of Judge Brown denying the application for the removal of Col. P. Huntington, who had been under investigation for a long time. He was found guilty of a violation of the interstate commerce law. He said:

"A Judge is the authority in such cases. We have no authority above his decision. Still it would seem that the act of giving the free pass was transportation as far as the Interstate Commerce Commission is concerned. Huntington is safe from trial now unless he should go back to California. Even then the court there may have the same opinion as Judge Brown and the indictment may be quashed."

A BACCHANALIAN GHOST.

The Woman Whose Spirit Haunts the Brooklyn Memorial Hospital.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK. May 8.—The Brooklyn Memorial Hospital for Women and Children furnishes a ghost story, for which the nurses declare they will vouch. While the new building is going up the hospital is located at Nos. 1445 and 1447 Pacific street, and it is the latter house which is said to be haunted. Its last occupant was a former actress, whose real name is not known. She was a beautiful woman, who lived a constant round of revelry and finally died of delirium tremens, with a champagne glass in her hand. It's her ghost which is said to do the haunting, gowned in black, with a champagne glass in her hand. At midnight, on certain anniversaries, she clicks glasses with unseen guests, the ice rattles in the wine and the corks are heard to pop.

At daybreak, when the party is supposed to break up, she has a farewell drink and vanishes.

All this is vouched for by the nurses, who have heard the convivial sounds during the long night watches, and once the woman in black was seen to drink a glass and then pass through a closed door. "I don't believe in ghosts one bit," said Miss Black, the superintendent, to a reporter. "I have the right to drink a glass and then pass through a closed door."

Despite Miss Black's skepticism, the nurses positively affirm that the clinking of glasses by gay spirits are actual occurrences.

SEALEY'S WILL GO.

The Galveston Militia Company Will Visit Memphis Despite Protests.

HOUSTON, Tex. May 8.—A special from Galveston to the Post says: Notwithstanding Adjutant-General Mahry's protest to the contrary, the Seaway Rifles will depart for Memphis next Thursday evening.

Whether they will enter the competitive feature of the fair is a question which will be decided upon the approach of the fair. Memphis As the prize cup was the contribution of the citizens of Memphis it is believed that Gen. Mahry has no jurisdiction over the cup, but that the donors can say by whom and to whom it shall be awarded.

PLAYGROUND ON THE ROOF.

Feature of the New Five Points House of Industry.

Special to The Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK. May 8.—The new Five Points house of industry is to be built and taken up in the old one, which was erected by the city of Memphis. As the prize cup was the contribution of the citizens of Memphis it is believed that Gen. Mahry has no jurisdiction over the cup, but that the donors will be priviledged of paying all in case that winter it may be roofed with glass.

UNTIL NEXT YEAR.

Detroit Plan Will Not Be Put Into Active Operation.

The Detroit plan, which was presented to the people of St. Louis as a method already successfully tried in other cities for furnishing employment and sustenance to the worthy poor, will not be put in local operation this season.

Gov. Norman J. Colman said this morning:

"To those who are interested in the 'Detroit plan' of giving employment to the working poor, I would say that the committee to put such plan in active operation in St. Louis, that in my opinion on account of the protracted drought and the want of a sufficient place for placing it, would be unwise and attended with failure if put on trial now. It would only add to the misfortunes of the poor to attempt to raise a crop in such a parched soil. I have determined to return to the contributors all sums of money that have been sent to me to put the plan into operation this season, as the same will be out of place a farthing. Another year the plan may be successful if the work is commenced in time."

During the discussion of the local experiment, Gov. Colman said: "I am born and raised on a farm, am a practical farmer and know that owing to the lateness of the season, the crop could not be successfully carried out this year. I think this plan is a grand one and should be taken up in every city of the country." The Post-Dispatch has the plan in full and is presenting it to the people of the plan to St. Louisans. Next year I hope it will be taken up by the people in time. I shall be willing and glad to give my services to the plan to help it to show warmer interest. The real estate men came forward with offers of property, but the contributions from other sources represented a sum of $10,000 and 80¢ of this was from Mayor Walbridge."

The Executive Committee meets this afternoon and will wind up the business.

It is long since there has been such an assemblage of royalty in London. The third daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, Princess Alexandra, made her debut in the royal circle.

Chief's Detective Service, Odd Fellows' Lodge, St. Louis, Office, New York, Chicago, Denver, Kansas City, St. Paul, Portland.

Private matters skillfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Dinsmore, 81 Pine.

P. A. C. PRESIDENT.

Mr. Will Brown Elected to Succeed Mr. Julian Laughlin.

The Board of Directors of the Pastime Athletic Club held a long and important meeting last night and accepted the resignation of President Julian Laughlin. Mr. Will Brown, prominent attorney, was elected to succeed him.

The Coburn brothers, Lou and Will, were brought before the board to account for the trouble which precipitated Mr. Laughlin's resignation and caused the abandonment of the ladies' best.

The affair occurred at the Fair Grounds, with the horses waiting to train, and Mr. Laughlin asserted that his authority had been denied.

There was considerable difference in the accounts of the two brothers, but it was decided that Jack Coburn should apologize.

Lou should apologize and be suspended for one week and that Will should be admitted.

This affair was not the only matter that led Mr. Laughlin to take the course he did. He felt that he was not given the support due him in managing the large institution, and therefore insisted that he resign.

WILL BROWN,

Mr. Brown is the new president of the club, a very popular man among local athletes, especially wheelmen. He was connected with the Bicyclists' Bicycle Club and afterward with the Missouri Bicycle Club, joining the Pastimes when the Missouri disbanded. Mr. Brown was but recently elected president of the Missouri Division of the Pastimes, with a view to harmonizing it with the other bicycle clubs of the city, and in his more influential position, was able to bring about a thorough understanding.

He has the confidence of all cyclists, and the news that he has been made the chief executive of the A. C. will be received with pleasure. Mr. Laughlin will remain a director.

Mr. Richard Shapleigh, speaking for the Pastime Athletic Association, said last night that the notice of the closing of the club-house would be withdrawn and that arrangements had been made whereby the club would continue its existence.

The bicycle races announced for May 18 and 30, which were afterward canceled, will now run.

Three nights, Cavanagh at Galveston tonight, and Dan Creedon will arrive in St. Louis next Sunday. Masterson was at the track last night by quite a delegation of St. Louis sportsmen, including Sullivan, Marley Kettlemann, Johnny Roach and J. H. Col. Hopkins' Treasurer, Masterson is stopping at Col. Hopkins' residence in a pugnacious way, having seconded "Denver" Ed Smith when he defeated Jim Tracy in New Orleans, and he was beat Charley Miller, while Jim Corbett beat him at Jacksonville, Fla.

CHRIS SMITH'S WILD PLUNGES.

Trainer Marion Says He Is a Mark for Bookies.

EASY COME AND EASY GO.

His Good Horses Make Thousands for Him and He Lets the Gamblers Get It.

Although he has retired from the service of Chris Smith, the plunging owner of the Kendall stable, Trainer Leo Marion, will still have his bit of money with Chris, and wishes the best of success with his stable. Marion is at the Fair Grounds with a pair of promising 2-year-olds, by Spectre, and with a 3-year-old, by Gandy. C. W. G. Cannon's Bedford stable, when Johnny Hurman left Smith, and at the urgent invitation of the latter took charge of the Kendall stable.

"I campaigned the horses last season," said Marion, "and won something like $70,000 for Smith with them. Chris is a man that does not know when to stop, and it does not make any difference how much the horses win, he will lose it faster than they can make it. He is a first-class man, a good fellow, and I hope that his horses the man who takes charge of his stable must be able to steer him alone safely also, or there is no telling what will happen. Chris is a good man, and I hope he will leave everything to his trainer. He is always out for the money, but if he gets in bad hands the stable is liable to suffer."

"I took a horse to the track with Leo Mayer had $17,000 placed on them. Chris wanted to pay off first of all, and won the money to do it with her in St. Louis last summer. After the race, he paid off his horses, one would naturally suppose that Smith would change his tactics and quit placing himself in the control of the bookmaker when he had to. He had to invest a lot of money, however, and his money continued to slip away from him against every game imaginable. We had to be hauled to St. Louis to get a new saddle, and when we got it Yo Tambien had not won the Wheeler Handicap at Washington Park last summer, the stable could not have gotten away from Chris without a ride."

"This spring the Fair Association had to ask the stable out of Memphis. Such misfortune discouraged me that's why I left Smith, and went to Tambien."

Leo started at Memphis when she was not ready, but we had to do it in order to accommodate the track management, which was behind the track.

After the race, we got out of Memphis, and I had to get it for her in a race. Maid Marian is the only horse in the stable that can work with her, and she was not in condition to run.

"The big chestnut mare is getting old now and the public should not expect as much from her, although she is in the shape at present, and should be able to run a race Saturday. Ursula, I consider a first-class mare. Yo Tambien ran her best race last year in the Spanish Handicap at Saratoga, in which event she defeated Raindrop, Clifford and Lampighter. I insisted that Prince Carl should retain and Ohio Belle sold him to me. The wisdom of my judgment on that occasion has since been thoroughly demonstrated.

Manager Brady Says the Men Will Stick by the Agreement.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, May 8.—Since it seems unlikely that the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight will come off in either Florida or Louisiana, the question where the championship battle can be fought becomes a pertinent one.

"I shall stick to our agreement with the promoters, for the time being," said Corbett, "but there will be plenty of time to talk of other places when it is positively shown that the Florida club cannot pull off the fight. The Florida club cannot pull off the fight. The men can work with her, and she was not in condition to run.
